

Amber Setter, PCC, CPA (inactive)
hello@conscious.cpa • <https://conscious.cpa>

Amber Setter is a different kind of coach; a blend of grace and warrior spirit that compels her to bring up the un-discussable and un-cover the undiscoverable.

The clients who choose to work with Amber are the best at what they do, yet they still hunger for education. They choose her because of her intellect, authenticity and drive to educate them in ways they've never experienced.

Amber works with a select number of clients and organizations through her private practice. Beyond coaching, she delivers leadership training and keynote conversations for organizations that aspire to develop the whole person.

In addition to holding a Masters of Arts in Leadership Studies from the University of San Diego and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Accounting from San Jose State University, Amber is a graduate of Accomplishment Coaching - an ICF accredited Coaches Training Program where she completed their Advanced Leadership Program. Amber is a graduate of the entire ORSC™ series which shifts the focus of coaching from the individual to the relationship within a group, team or system to create more sustainable and resilient teams and families.

Recognized by the CalCPA as a Woman to Watch in the Experienced Leader Category, Amber is a national expert on building coaching cultures within the accounting profession. Her professional experience includes serving as an internal and external coach, facilitating and coaching within leadership development experiences and building a nationally recognized learning and development function.
